

THE OXFORD ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK

THE NEW YORK BRANCH OF THE OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

Our Aims

The Oxford Alumni Association of New York (OAANY) was formed over a decade ago to serve the needs and interests of graduates and friends of Oxford University in the New York/Tri-state area. It is the New York branch of the Oxford University Society, the University's official alumni organization.

Most graduates of Oxford look upon their time there as being decisive in their personal and intellectual development. OAANY serves as the vehicle through which friends and graduates of Oxford maintain and strengthen their ties to each other and to the University.

We do this by hosting speaker events, networking events, through our tri-annual newsletter and regular email updates.

Membership

Our newsletter is read by the 3,000 or so Oxford graduates in the New York/Tri-state area. We also send out Events updates by email to over 1000 individuals.

Our membership comprises a remarkable and highly influential group of people, many of whom are leading members of their fields. Our membership includes partners of New York's leading law firms, advertising agencies, hospitals, financial, cultural and educational institutions (see over). Many are former Rhodes Scholars.
